Job description

ARCHITECTURAL ASSISTANT (PART I)

Date
May 2020

Salary guide:
£21,500 - 24,250 commensurate with experience
(plus company benefits structure)

Location
London

We are looking for a skilled Part I Architectural Assistant to join our practice. The ideal candidate would have a desire to work on urban-scale strategies, participative co-design projects and early stages of project development.

Experience

Candidates applying must:

- show a talent for production through drawing, illustration and image-making
- have a genuine interest in urban-scale projects
- have the ability to work independently and take a lead on project development
- evidence ability to work in a professional office environment
- demonstrate a powerful public conscience in pursuing project goals and practice aims

Skills

You must be a talented designer and have good technical knowledge with a great eye for presentation. You should have a fluency in working with a broad spectrum of people - including the wider public - in driving projects forwards. Excellent communication skills and a desire to contribute to lively, creative & productive team working required. Experience with Vectorworks and Adobe CS are essential.

Candidates must be eligible to work in the UK and would ideally be available to start end May/ early June.

How to apply

Please send a digital copy of your CV to jobs@wemadethat.co.uk (max 10MB) along with a covering letter outlining how you meet the criteria. Mark the subject line with 'Architectural Assistant'. Pay will be commensurate with experience and we would request that you set out your pay expectations in the covering letter.

Deadline for applications is 25th May 2020.

We Made That is London Living Wage accredited and an equal opportunities employer.

COVID-19 note

As part of our business continuity policy, We Made That are currently instigating a COVID-19 Preparedness Plan to minimise risk to our team, clients, collaborators and the communities we work with.

We continue to operate without significant effect to our capacity. The full team is working remotely and remain in contact via email. All meetings have been moved to virtual formats. We would expect to conduct interviews remotely and anticipate that an initial period of working from home, in line with guidance, will be necessary for the successful candidate.

About We Made That

We Made That is an energetic architecture and urbanism practice with a strong public conscience. We work with our clients to prepare incisive urban research, to develop responsive area strategies and masterplans and to deliver distinctive architecture and public realm projects.

All our work is public, and we aim to make imaginative and considered contributions to the built environment through socially-engaged design processes.
