STUDIO & BID COORDINATOR

Salary guide:
Negotiable dependant on experience (plus company benefits structure)

This is a deadline-driven and busy support role in a collaborative environment alongside a highly motivated team of architects, urban designers, researchers and admin staff. You will support the wider team and practice manager in company marketing and communications, bidding for new work and assisting with document production on projects. Strong communication skills, an interest in graphics and meticulous attention to detail would be desired. Previous experience within an architecture practice with public sector bidding experience would be an advantage.

Tasks

Project communications:

- Creating and updating text and related content on projects for use in bids, marketing materials and digital communications
- Creating standard and bespoke marketing materials and content

Company information and marketing materials:

- Maintaining key company and project information for bids and other marketing materials, including CVs and project sheets
- Supporting publicity: awards, events, exhibitions and publications
- Producing ad-hoc brochures and capability statements

Bidding:

- Managing new work proposals and bid submissions, tracking and follow-up of practice-wide bidding activities
- Interfacing with procurement portals, timescales, deadlines, requirements and clarifications
- Coordinating inputs from internal team members and sub-consultants
- Producing bid submission documents (inc. PQQs, tenders and supporting admin requirements)

Project and studio support:

- Assisting production of documents in relation to projects
- Coordinating templates, style guides and visual quality control
- Support project leaders and directors
- Support day-to-day needs of the studio along side practice manager

We Made That LLP is

Skills

- flexible and able to adapt to deadlines
- highly organised
- meticulous attention to detail
- impeccable English language communication skills, both spoken and written
- proficiency with the Adobe Creative Suite (Photoshop and InDesign required, Lightroom preferable)
- excellent graphic communication and presentation

How to apply

If you meet the outlined requirements please send a digital copy of your CV to jobs@wemadethat.co.uk (max 10MB) along with a covering letter outlining how you meet the criteria. Mark the subject line with 'Studio & Bid Coordinator'.

Pay will be commensurate with experience and we would request that you set out your pay expectations in the covering letter.

Deadline

Deadline for applications is 18th April 2021.

Candidates must be eligible to work in the UK, based in our London office (remote working due to Covid-19 to be determined), and would ideally be available to start May 2021.

We Made That is London Living Wage accredited and an equal opportunities employer. We are keen that our practice reflects the diversity of communities we design for, and welcome and encourage applications from under-represented groups.
