

SIGN MAKING

WORKSHOPS

SIGN MAKING WORKSHOPS

JANUARY TASTER SESSIONS

A series of free workshops and training opportunities for those living or working in London Borough of Waltham Forest to learn new skills from specialist makers.

WORKSHOPS

2–6pm

14 January – Hand painting and gold leaf signs

15 January – Joinery and wood carving

21 January – Metalwork at Blackhorse Lane Studios

22 January – Lighting

28 January, 10–6pm

The workshop series will end in a day of sign making with participants undertaking a bespoke commission to produce a public sign for Blackhorse Workshop, a new public workshop providing access to tools and affordable workspace in Walthamstow.

WHERE

Blackhorse Workshop, 1–2 Sutherland Road Path, E17 6BX

The workshops are free, with all materials, tools and equipment provided. You are welcome to sign up to as many workshops as you wish.

Prior sign making experience is not required, so if you have a desire to learn new hands-on making skills or want to gain specialist experience to improve your employment opportunities then these workshops could be for you. (Suitable for ages 18 and above)

Allowance for travel and subsistence expenses available to participants.

Booking is essential as places are limited. To book email studio@wemadethat.co.uk or call 020 7249 6336.

As part of a programme of transformations to streetscapes, shops and industrial frontages in the Blackhorse Lane area, the workshops have been made possible by funding from the Mayor's Outer London Fund and the London Borough of Waltham Forest.

SUPPORTED BY MAYOR OF LONDON

Creating a better place

Waltham Forest